

Partners in Ministry

At the center of the creation of the Partners in Ministry Offering, was the idea and belief that the American Baptist Churches across Pennsylvania and Delaware and the ABCOPAD region, both exist and can provide ministry because of the partnership that is shared and supported, between these groups.

A chorus from a song comes to mind, “we’re all in this together”, when I think of the different ways we organize to respond to disasters, seek to support our pastors and congregations, understand and comply with state or federal regulations, provide opportunities for youth to come together for worship and celebration, create teams for mission work nationally and internationally and maintain the framework for credentialing and ordination of people called into ministry.

No one can do these things alone. We need the shared spiritual gifts of everyone involved, the contacts and connections of previous experiences and the people and financial resources that are only available when planning and commitment are in place. Your gifts to PIM enable ministry.
